

Current Science & Experience in Active Management of Riparian Areas: Protecting Forests, Fish, Wildlife, People & Communities

A REGIONAL WORKSHOP FOR CONGRESSIONAL & STATE LEGISLATORS & STAFF
World Forestry Center, Portland, OR • Thursday, August 10, 2017

Program Agenda and Speakers

- 8:00 am Registration & Coffee
- 9:00 am Welcome and Introductions
- Nick Smith (Moderator), Communications Chair, Oregon Society of American Foresters, Sherwood, OR
 - Werner Krueger, Chair, Oregon SAF, Roseburg, OR
 - Jennifer Allen, Board Chair, World Forestry Center, Portland, OR
 - Bill Richardson, Sr. Program Manager, OR-WA, Rocky Mt. Elk Foundation, Philomath, OR
- 9:20 am Current Issues in Policy and Management of Riparian Areas—Ted Lorensen, Assistant State Forester, Oregon Dept. of Forestry (retired), Salem, OR
- 9:45 am Science Related to Riparian Areas and Their Management: History, Scope and Use of Research Findings—Dr. Paul Adams, Prof. Emeritus, Forest Watershed Management, College of Forestry, Oregon State University, Corvallis, OR
- 10:15 am BREAK
- 10:45 am Physical Science—Dr. George Ice, Research Hydrologist (retired), National Council for Air and Stream Improvement, and Past Chair SAF Forest Science and Technology Board, Corvallis, OR
- 11:15 am Biological Science—Dr. Dana Warren, Assistant Professor, Aquatic and Fisheries Ecology, College of Forestry, Oregon State University, Corvallis, OR
- 11:45 am Legal Issues and Implications for Riparian Policy and Management—Elizabeth Howard, Natural Resource Attorney, Schwabe, Williamson & Wyatt, Portland, OR
- 12:15 pm Luncheon Speaker: Sharon Livingston, Rancher, Forest Landowner, Retired Teacher, Past President of the Oregon Cattlemen's Association, and 2016 Oregon Agriculturist of the Year, Long Creek, OR
- 1:30 pm Panel on Issues and Opportunities for Landowners and Communities
- County Government Perspective—Tim Freeman, Douglas County, Oregon Commissioner and President, Association of O&C Counties; and Doug Robertson, Douglas County Commissioner (retired), Roseburg, OR
 - Dry Forest/Grassland Landowner Perspective—Mike Liquori, Principal Consultant, Sound Watershed, Alameda, CA
 - Woodland Owner Community Perspective—Jim James, Executive Director, Oregon Small Woodlands Association, Salem, OR; and Dr. Elaine Oneil, Executive Director, Washington Farm Forestry Association, Chehalis, WA
- 3:00 pm Final Comments and Group Discussion—Travis Joseph, Oregon SAF Member, Former Congressional Staffer, and President, American Forest Resource Council, Portland, OR
- 3:30 pm ADJOURN

Current Science & Experience in Active Management of Riparian Areas: Protecting Forests, Fish, Wildlife, People & Communities

A REGIONAL WORKSHOP FOR CONGRESSIONAL & STATE LEGISLATORS & STAFF
World Forestry Center, Portland, OR • Thursday, August 10, 2017

Speakers

Paul Adams
Professor Emeritus
OSU

Jennifer Allen
Board Chair
World Forestry Center

Elizabeth Howard
Nat. Resource Attorney
Schwabe, Williamson &
Wyatt

George Ice
Research Hydrologist
NCASI (retired)

Tim Freeman
Oregon Commissioner
Douglas County

Jim James
Executive Director
OSWA

Travis Joseph
President
AFRC

Werner Krueger
Chair
Oregon SAF

Mike Liquori
Principal Consultant
Sound Watershed

Sharon Livingston
Past President
Oregon Cattlemen's
Association

Ted Lorensen
Assistant State Forester
Oregon Dept. of
Forestry (retired)

Elaine Oneil
Executive Director
WFFA

Nick Smith
Communications Chair
Oregon SAF

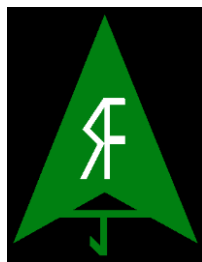

Dana Warren
Assistant Professor
OSU

Current Science & Experience in Active Management of Riparian Areas: Protecting Forests, Fish, Wildlife, People & Communities

A REGIONAL WORKSHOP FOR CONGRESSIONAL & STATE LEGISLATORS & STAFF
World Forestry Center, Portland, OR • Thursday, August 10, 2017

Co-sponsors:

STARKER FORESTS, INC.

Oregon
Cattlemen's Association

OREGON FOREST & INDUSTRIES COUNCIL
SUSTAINABILITY. SCIENCE. INNOVATION. GROWTH.

Schwabe
WILLIAMSON & WYATT®